Odyssey Fashion Show

"On Another Level"

March 3 & 4 2006

I decided to put on a fashion show because modeling is a passion of mine. I wanted to be involved in a school activity, but nothing at the school was of much interest to me. So, I said to myself why not put on something that interests me and get others with the same interests involved also. I was assisted by many friends and the Awards Committee of CBA. My mother, Valisa Knight, and close friends of mine, Natasha Simmons and Donneka Simmons's mother, Donna Simmons, along with the two girls themselves were also a major help to me throughout all of this. The show definitely couldn't of run and been the success it was without our stage manager Lamont Robinson and the assistant stage manager Clynae Burrows.

I would like to give a special thanks to each and every person that lent a helping hand and also their support from day of this show; family, friends, parents, teachers, and especially all of the models, girls and guys that took part in the show.

The scenes included:

- Punk Rock attire
- Casual attire
- Business attire
- Sports attire
- Elegant – Highlighting Prom 2006

- Accessorize Yourself
- Spring attire
- Children's scene – showcasing the cowboy theme

The most exciting scene for me was the accessorize yourself. We designed our own outfits made entirely of black trash bags. We finished each outfit off with any accessory of choice including colorful bracelets, neck pieces, bags, shoes, hats etc. It caught the eye of every audience member and definitely added to the magnitude of the show.

DID YOU KNOW?

Why do ostriches bury their heads in the sand? They actually don't. In a study of 200,000 ostriches over a period of eighty years, no one reported a single case where an ostrich buried its head in the sand (or attempted to do so).
